Titus 2:11, Ephes. 2:8 - Unscramble the letters:

The Bible is clear that Salvation is available only as an undeserved gift from God. As such, you must accept it in order to receive it. This gift is described as unspeakable (indescribable) in 2 Cor. 9:15 and exceeding abundant in I Tim. 1:14. Wow!

7. How do I accept the gift of salvation?

A) John 1:12, Acts 16:31 - Unscramble the letters:

EEVILEB = _____ in Jesus

To trust or rely on someone's name, means to believe in who they are and what they can do (their authority and character). Jesus claimed to be the Son of God, both divine and human, and that He did not sin. These things make Him, and only Him, able to save us (Acts 4:10-12).

Before sins can be repented, a person must recognize sin. The law of God is like a mirror, enabling us to see our true condition. We can try as hard as possible, but by ourselves, we cannot overcome sin. This is what enables us to realize that we need a savior and continues to help us to see our true state (I John 2:3, 5:2, Rom. 7:7).

9. May I give the gift back after accepting it?

Col. 1:22-23, John 15:6, Rev. 3:5, Rom. 11:22, I Cor. 9:27

10. How do I know if I am continuing in faith?

A) Acts 2:38, Gal. 3:24 - You will _____

This means to think differently or to feel anxiety of conscience. True faith in Christ produces a desire to leave sin behind and walk in a new life.

B) John 3:5, Mark 16:15-16, Acts 2:38-41

You will be _____

Once the foundational beliefs of Christ are understood and accepted, Scriptures teach that there should be no delay in a commitment to follow all of Christ's teachings and getting baptized by water (Acts 22:16, 16:33, 10:47-48). It is the outward showing of inward beliefs.

C) Romans 10:9, Matthew 10:32, Romans 1:16

You will _____ Jesus to others

In these texts, this word means to assent, profess, acknowledge, give thanks. Unashamedly living your faith and gladly sharing your belief in Jesus with others is a natural result of true faith in Christ.

D) 1 Cor. 15:2, Col. 1:22-23 - You will become more and more _____ in the Bible

Accepting Christ means accepting His teachings. Venturing away from the teachings of the Bible, even if you still believe in Christ, is venturing away from salvation. Improving your knowledge of Bible-based doctrines keeps you from error/deception (Ephes. 4:13-15) and helps you to grow spiritually (I Peter 2:2).

E) 2 Peter 1:5-11, 2 Thes. 2:13 - You will see _____ improvements

As Christ justifies (cleanses you from committed sin), He sanctifies (transforms your character so that you don't want to sin). These ongoing processes are done by Christ in you, as you submit to them. If you continue exercising faith, your character will become more and more like Christ's, showing love to others (I John 3:23, 4:7-12, 5:2) and producing fruit (John 15:4, Gal. 5:22, Ephes. 5:9).

11. What are the benefits of salvation?

John 17:3, 3:15, Is. 52:6, Rev. 21:3, Rom. 2:6-7 - You will:

- a) Know God

- d) Dwell with God
- e) Live forever
